

PRESS RELEASE

Latour's A share Delists

Investment AB Latour's board has decided to delist the company's A share. The share is noted on Nasdaq OMX Stockholm, Large Cap List. Trading in the company's B share will continue as before and is not affected by the delisting.

The last day of trading in the company's A share will be 30 November 2009.

Owners of A shares will, as in the past, be able to convert their holdings from A shares to B shares. According to the Articles of Association this kind of conversion must take place at least once a year if there has been a request from a shareholder. Investment AB Latour offers an extra opportunity to reclassify shares in 2009 in connection with the delisting. The company must have received notification of such a reclassification no later than 30 November 2009.
