

PRESS RELEASE

Latour's Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting of Investment AB Latour (publ) on 3 May 2016 decided the following:

- to distribute a dividend of SEK 6.75 per share,
- to re-elect Anders Böös, Mariana Burenstam Linder, Anders G. Carlberg, Carl Douglas, Eric Douglas and Jan Svensson to the board. To elect Olle Nordström and Lena Olving to the board. Olle Nordström was elected chairman of the board,
- to appoint ÖhrlingsPricewaterhouseCoopers as the company's accountant firm until the end of the Annual General Meeting 2017,
- to give the board, for the period until the next Annual General Meeting, authorization to decide on the repurchase of own shares up to a maximum of 10 percent of the share capital as well as the transfer of own shares as payment for acquisitions and/or to use these in connection with the company's call option program,
- to authorize the board to offer senior officers the opportunity to acquire call options on market terms for a maximum of 200,000 B shares, corresponding to no more than 0.13 percent of the total number of company shares. The decision means that shares can be sold with a deviation from shareholders' preferential rights according the conditions for the call options,
- that the nominating committee shall be elected by the Annual General Meeting. Gustaf Douglas, (chairman), Fredrik Palmstierna, Björn Karlsson and Johan Strandberg were elected to serve until the Annual General Meeting 2017.

The board's decision to use its repurchase authorization

The board decided at the following constitutional board meeting to use its repurchase authorization to buy back Latour shares. The shares may be acquired from 4 May 2016 until the next Annual General Meeting for a price within the registered price interval on the NASDAQ OMX Stockholm at the time of acquisition.
