

PRESS RELEASE

Latour divests its holding in Diamorph

Investment AB Latour (publ) has signed an agreement to divest its entire shareholding in Diamorph, a total of 14,923,571 shares which corresponds to 28.2 per cent of the capital. The transaction is carried out in connection with the UK-based Epiris Fund II's acquisition of all the shares in Diamorph. Epiris has a long history of successful investments and we consider Epiris to be an owner that secures the future development of Diamorph.

Latour has been a shareholder in Diamorph since 2012. The divestment is a consequence of a decision supported by more than 90 per cent of the company's shareholders. The purchase price for Latour's share of the transaction amounts to SEK 290 m. Latour's total investment in Diamorph is SEK 164 m. The transaction will be completed in January 2019, subject to certain conditions that has to be fulfilled before that.
