

PRESS RELEASE

Heléne Mellquist strengthens Latour's management

Heléne Mellquist has been employed as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer in Latour. Latour's operations have had a strong growth for a long time. With this as a background, it is natural to adapt and strengthen the organisation to continue growing in combination with an active ownership and a delegated organisation.

Heléne Mellquist has a long industrial and international experience from senior positions within, among others, Volvo Group, most recently as CEO for Volvo Penta. Heléne's background and profile fit well into Latour, a long-term principal owner in leading international industrial companies. As part of the management team Heléne will share the ownership responsibility for Latour's holdings with the rest of the management in Latour.

"I look forward with joy to continue developing Latour together Heléne Mellquist in our group management", says Johan Hjertonsson, CEO of Investment AB Latour.

Heléne Mellquist will assume the position by 15 January 2024, at the latest.
