Latour's CFO will leave during 2025

Anders Mörck, CFO of Investment AB Latour, has announced that he will leave his role as CFO during 2025, aiming for April 30, 2025. Anders has held his position as CFO since 2008.

"I have concluded that I am ready for the next phase in my life, and hence I am not leaving for another assignment outside Latour. I have had the best job I ever could wish for, and I will leave fantastic colleagues and companies that I love. I hope somehow to have the opportunity to stay connected going forward", says Anders Mörck.

"I would like to thank Anders for his significant efforts during all these years, where Anders has been instrumental for Latour's positive development, not least in terms of our corporate culture. Like Anders, I look forward to keep our relationship. We will immediately start a process to find his successor", says Johan Hjertonsson, CEO of Investment AB Latour.
